Regional Ombudsman of Tyrol

Body of the State Parliament
of Tyrol

Responsibility

- The Regional Ombudsman and her team advise and investigate in cases where you feel that you have not been fairly treated by a regional authority and believe that the authority has made a mistake.
- The regional administration authorities include in particular the Tyrol Communities, the Innsbruck Municipal Council, the district authorities and the Office of the Tyrolean Regional Government.
- Examples of our areas of responsibility: social law, construction and spatial planning law, municipal law, agricultural legislation, commercial law etc.
- People with a disability and their relatives can obtain help and information from the disabled person's ombudsman in the team of the Regional Ombudsman.
- We are not responsible for dealing with complaints about the federal authorities (e.g. tax authority, police, social insurance institutions, public employment service) or judicial matters (criminal and civil war). However, we can offer guidance and refer you to the relevant body, if required.

The Regional Ombudsman cannot represent anyone in a legal capacity.
